

Author Talk and Book Signing at the Lighthouse Point Library Lauren Doyle Owens

Wednesday, January 31st at 10:30am
Free – Open To The Public – Seating Is First Come

The Other Side of Everything is a literary mystery set during a sweltering South Florida summer. It is the debut novel by Lauren Doyle Owens, a Florida based fiction writer and hobbyist photographer. Release date 01/23/18. Published by Touchstone Books: A Simon and Schuster imprint.

★ “[A] tense, rich debut. . . . Owens impressively captures the emotional landscape of three generations and the varying compromises required of women in each. Fans of crime fiction wanting literary flair and emotional depth will gladly follow this trio of complicated characters.” Publishers Weekly (starred review)

★ “A literary thriller with everything book groups are looking for: fine writing, a flawlessly constructed story, and relatable characters providing plenty of questionable decisions rife for discussion.” Booklist (starred review)

A Lighthouse Point Library card is required for enrollment and registration in Library courses and programs.

The Lighthouse Point Library is a public municipal (rather than county) library. The Library is funded by the City of Lighthouse Point, grants, endowments, and donations. Library cards are free for all Lighthouse Point residents, business owners, and their children. Adults and youth (under the age of 4 and over the age of 13) who do not reside in the City of Lighthouse Point are welcome to join the Library for the annual fee of $50.00 per family (at the same full address).

ENROLLMENT IN THE SENIOR PROGRAM

Before attending your first class session you will need to enroll in the 2017/2018 Senior Class Programs with your Lighthouse Point Library Card and driver's license (which shows your date of birth and residency in Lighthouse Point). If your driver's license does not have your Lighthouse Point address on it, you will also need to bring a utility bill, property tax bill, or certified lease with your name and Lighthouse Point address on it. The name on your photo id must match the name on your proof of Lighthouse Point residency. The Library is required to maintain copies of each participant's enrollment form, proof of age, and proof of residency for their annual CDBG grant audit. Grant funding enables the Library to offer the facilities, utilities, supplies, equipment, support, and the coordination necessary to run the senior program.

REGISTRATION IN SENIOR CLASSES

To stay under the Fire Marshal capacity for each room, select classes require registration.

Registration is available online at lighthousepointlibrary.com.

Your pin number is the first SIX numbers of your Library card.
